

Pennine Perspectives

*Papers from a conference held in Grassington
October 2019*

64 pages with many full colour illustrations and maps throughout.

Published by
Yorkshire Dales Landscape Research Trust

Edited by R. D. Martlew

CONTENTS

1. Permatrace to pixels: developments in airborne remote sensing. Matthew Oakey (Historic England)
2. Putting archaeology on the map: reflections on two decades of landscape-scale field survey in the uplands of northern England. Stewart Ainsworth (University of Chester), Al Oswald (University of York) and Dave Went (Historic England)
3. "Is there owt there and, if so, what is it?" Remote sensing and ground truthing in the Yorkshire Dales: some recent case studies. Alex Gibson (University of York)
4. Romans in Rural Swaledale? Community excavation of a Romano-British site at Hagg Farm, Swaledale, North Yorkshire. David Brooks, Philip Bastow (Swaledale and Arkengarthdale Archaeology Group) and Tony Liddell (Vindomara Solutions Ltd)
5. Cavers, Caves and Corpses: how caving has contributed to our understanding of the archaeology and palaeontology of the Yorkshire Dales. Phil Murphy (University of Leeds)
6. The transition of Altogether Archaeology from a North Pennines AONB project to a community group. Tony Metcalfe (Altogether Archaeology)
7. Summaries from Displays.
 - 7.1 Investigations in Kilnsey Township, North Yorkshire
Roger Martlew (YDLRT)
 - 7.2 "Digging for Britons!" – a community excavation of a presumed native settlement in the Lune Valley
Jan Hicks (Lunesdale Archaeology Society)
 - 7.3 Investigating an earthwork settlement site in Ribblesdale
Bob Moore (Ingleborough Archaeology Group)

£12 inc. p&p

Available from: YDLRT, Chapel Beck, Kettlewell, Skipton, BD23 5RL

Please supply:

_____ copy(ies) of Pennine Perspectives

I enclose a cheque for £_____ payable to Yorkshire Dales Landscape Research Trust

Please print clearly:

Name:.....

Address:

(To order multiple copies or other YDLRT publications please contact info@ydlrt.co.uk)

